To Whom It May Concern,

This is to confirm that Zahed Rabbi (S571669) is currently a student in the UoPeople English as a Second Language Foundations program at University of the People.

University of the People is an English, online, accredited university and therefore all undergraduate students must prove their English proficiency through a set of courses given by the University. Only once the student has successfully completed the ESL program and has proven their English Proficiency will they continue studying in the UoPeople Foundations.

The UoPeople Foundations consists of a set of courses that are intended to be completed while students are completing their admissions process to the University. These courses, which are taken after the student has successfully completed the UoPeople ESL program, will later count toward the student's degree program.

University of the People (UoPeople) is the world's first tuition-free, non-profit, online accredited, academic institution. UoPeople is dedicated to opening access to higher education globally and is designed to provide access to undergraduate degree programs for qualified individuals, despite financial, geographic or societal constraints.

Please do not hesitate to contact us at student.services@uopeople.edu, if you require any further information.

Best Regards,
